STATEMENT　艺术家自述

Sita Kuo (Rachel) is an abstract painter based in Xiamen, China. Trained in interior design, she approaches painting with an acute awareness of space: how a canvas holds a wall, how it alters the light and scale of a room, and how it lives alongside the people who move through it.

Her new series is built on a single, recurring language. Dense, looping lines in white, black, red and blue travel across saturated fields of colour, crossing, doubling back and knotting together until the surface becomes a field of continuous movement. Each line records a gesture of the body, at once spontaneous and insistent.

The paintings are made slowly, in layers. Thick impasto and mixed media are built up and worked over, so that earlier colours surface through later ones and the canvas takes on a tactile, almost sculptural presence. Up close, the works are about touch and matter; from across a room, they are about rhythm, colour and the energy of a space.

Sita Kuo（Rachel）是一位常居中国厦门的抽象画家。室内设计的专业背景，使她始终以空间的视角看待绘画：一幅画如何占据一面墙，如何改变房间的光线与尺度，又如何与身处其中的人共同生活。

她的新系列建立在一种贯穿始终的统一语言之上。白、黑、红、蓝的线条在饱和的色域之上密集地回旋、穿行、折返与缠绕，直至整个画面成为一片持续流动的场域。每一根线条都记录着身体的动作——既即兴，又执着。

这些作品以缓慢的层叠方式完成。厚重的肌理笔触与综合材料被一层层堆叠、覆盖、再加工，早先的色彩从后来的颜料中透出，使画布具有可触的、近乎雕塑般的存在感。近看，它们关乎触感与物质；远观，则关乎节奏、色彩，以及一个空间的能量。
